

Why Delta Epsilon Chi?

A Student Perspective

Delta Epsilon Chi, a student organization that helps college students develop leadership skills, offers programs that will benefit all students—regardless of their majors.

With a competitive event program that focuses on a wide range of career areas, Delta Epsilon Chi helps its members gain a competitive edge in the job market—beyond what other student organizations currently on your campus offer.

Delta Epsilon Chi develops strategic decision-making skills essential for college students seeking professional careers.

Delta Epsilon Chi helps students make informed career choices by providing opportunities to explore a diverse group of professional fields.

Delta Epsilon Chi provides students with opportunities to travel, to make life-long friends, to network with business and industry experts, and to work with these people as members of a Δ EX team.